

School Scraps

"The feet or the jacket?"

"All in a day's work."

"Oh, my mal au reins."

"Those mature Seniors!"

"A cigarette for lunch?"

"I've got a contagious disease."

"In my opinion..."

"Grin and bear it."

"Teacher or student?"

"Maybe next year?"

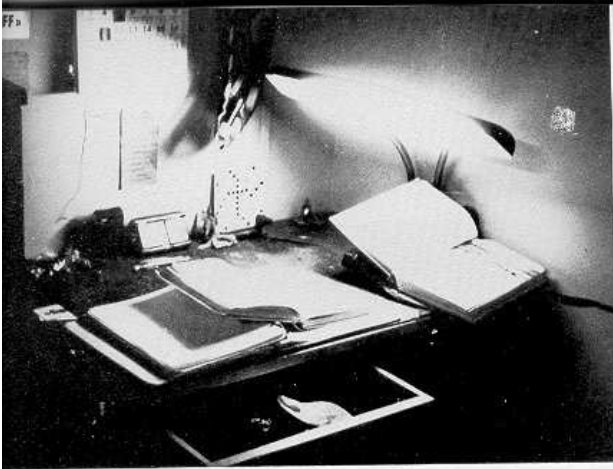

"Some play. . ."

"...some work."

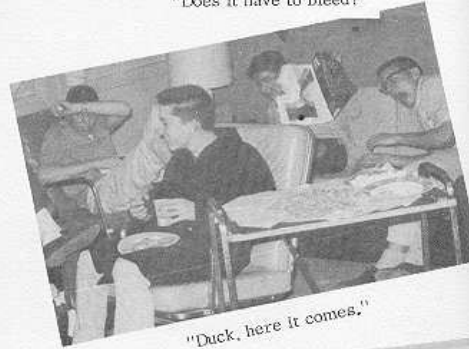

"Coffee, tea, or milk?"

"It looks good, but. . ."

"Does it have to bleed?"

"Duck, here it comes."

"How many points today?"

"A lethal pose."

"Home sweet home?"

"But I want him on restriction!"

"...and they're going to eat this?"

"Two heads are better than one?"

*Always remember Nancy! Love
Dorothy*

"Sing pretty, girls?"

"What manners!"

"What price beauty?"

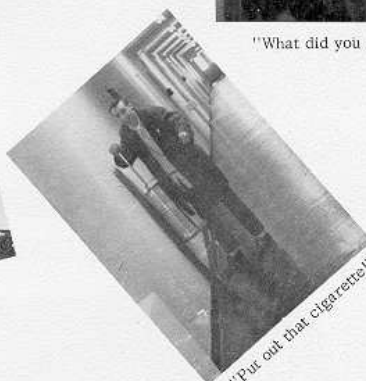

"What did you call me?"

"Rub-a-dub-dub."

"Who put anchovies on the pizza?"

"Put out that cigarette!"

"Forty percent fewer cavities."

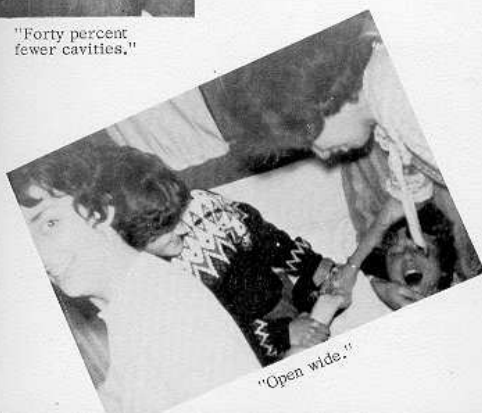

"Are you authorized?"

yes - yes - yes

"Sorry, no night out."

"Sunshine at breakfast?"

"Open wide."

Our Royalty

HOMECOMING QUEEN
 Michele Greenip
 ATTENDANTS
 Barbara Moon
 Gretchen Edwards
 Diane Stern

CHRISTMAS QUEEN
 Maureen Cassidy
 ATTENDANTS:
 Kathy Scoville
 Gretchen Edwards
 Barbara Moon

QUEEN OF HEARTS
 Barbara Moon
 ATTENDANTS:
 Gretchen Edwards
 Karen Welden

"63"

SENIOR SUPERLATIVES

Most Attractive

Maureen Cassidy and John Hicks

"Pretty is as pretty does."

Wittiest

Carolyn Cook and Tom Morgan

"At their wit's end."

Most likely To Succeed
Emily Feffer and
Alan Miller

"Nothing succeeds like success."

Most Studios
Denise Dubois and
Charles Dobson
"Did we have homework?"

Best All Around

Carole Durham and Bill Flake

"A pound of pluck is worth a pound of luck."

Most Popular

Nancy Kight and Al Thompson

"For fools admire, but wise men of sense approve."

Best Dressed

Barbara Jones and Chuck Shellhorn

"Eat to please thyself, but dress to please others."

Most Athletic

Mickie Greenip and Jim Smrcka

"The play's the thing."

